Proclamation

World Cerebral Palsy

WHEREAS the full and effective participation of people living with cerebral palsy expresses the inherent dignity and worth of all persons; and

WHEREAS Colwood is committed to the elimination of all barriers, including physical and attitudinal, that would preclude the participation of all persons in the life of the community; and

WHEREAS Cerebral palsy is the most common physical disability in childhood and is a non-progressive neuro-motor condition affecting 17 million people worldwide, including some 50,000 Canadians. In British Columbia, there are 10,000 people closely connected to someone living with cerebral palsy; and

WHEREAS The Cerebral Palsy Association of British Columbia joins hundreds of organizations in more than 50 countries to celebrate and build a global community committed to creating a better world for people living with cerebral palsy and to see all people living with cerebral palsy to enjoy Life Without Limits.

NOW THEREFORE:

I, Carol Hamilton, Mayor of the City of Colwood, do hereby proclaim October 5th, 2016 as World Cerebral Palsy Day in the City of Colwood.

Mayor Carol Hamilton
