

Proclamation

100th ANNIVERSARY COMMISSIONAIRES VICTORIA, THE ISLANDS AND YUKON

- WHEREAS: Commissionaires Victoria, the Islands and Yukon (CVIY) is proud to celebrate its 100th anniversary as a provider of security services in Canada.
- WHEREAS: On July 25, 1925, the Canadian Corps of Commissionaires was founded with a mission to provide meaningful employment for veterans returning from war.
- WHEREAS: Today, 100 years later, CVIY is driven by its social mandate to provide meaningful employment to veterans of the Canadian Armed Forces, RCMP and other former first responders.
- WHEREAS: In addition, they are joined by dedicated professionals from all walks of life, who serve a range of clients across industries united by a shared commitment to safety, service, and community.
- WHEREAS: As a not-for-profit organization, CVIY reinvests in people, purpose, and the communities we serve. We deliver trusted security and advanced technology solutions across Vancouver Island, helping to protect what matters most.

NOW, THEREFORE:

I, Doug Kobayashi, Mayor of the City of Colwood, do hereby proclaim the remainder of 2025, as a time of recognition and celebration of the Commissionaires Victoria, the Islands and Yukon, and encourage all residents to join in honouring their century of service, dedication, and community impact.
